

PROVOST'S WORKING GROUP ON HUMAN REMAINS AT DARTMOUTH

Last Updated: February 15, 2024

Charge:

- To solicit and review information from Dartmouth's schools and divisions as well as external consultants pertaining to human remains in Dartmouth's care, including re:
 - identity of individuals represented (as available);
 - collection procedures;
 - conditions of storage;
 - use in current teaching and research; and
 - existing plans for return/reburial/removal from campus.
- To oversee the creation of a comprehensive database of human remains present across all Dartmouth schools and divisions.
- To recommend a framework for the future collection, use, and stewardship of human remains at Dartmouth that conforms to ethical principles and legal requirements as well as best scientific and scholarly practices, particularly in the context of Dartmouth's Toward Equity strategic plan.
- To provide the Provost and the community updates on the group's progress, at least quarterly.
