

AD HOC COUNCIL ON WORK-LIFE ISSUES (COWLI)

July 1, 2023, to June 30, 2024

Charge:

To provide guidance to the Provost and Executive Vice President in addressing the challenges of work-life issues as they relate to the recruitment and retention of employees and graduate students, with particular attention to how such issues affect diversity, equity, and inclusion.

Membership:

The Council on Work-Life Issues shall consist of the Chief Human Resources Officer or their representative; Executive Vice President (ex officio); the Provost or their representative (ex officio); three Arts & Sciences faculty (one from each division); one faculty from each of the professional schools (Tuck, Thayer, Geisel); three Dartmouth Staff; one Graduate or Professional students and one postdoctoral scholar. As an ad-hoc council, members will serve one-year terms, subject to renewal. The committee shall be co-chaired by a staff member and a faculty member, as appointed by the Provost.

Name	Membership	Term End Date
Jomysha Delgado Stephen	Executive Vice-President for Strategy and Special Counsel to the President (ex officio)	Role-based
Daniel Veres	Provost, or representative (ex officio)	Role-based
Sara Lester	Chief HR Officer, or representative	Role-based
Petra McGillen	A&S representative, Arts & Humanities	June 30, 2024
Devin Balkcom, co-chair	A&S representative, Sciences	June 30, 2024
Treb Allen	A&S representative, Social Sciences	June 30, 2024
Erika Moen	Geisel representative	July 1, 2025
Lorin Parker	Tuck representative	June 30, 2024
Kim Samkoe	Thayer representative	June 30, 2024
Chloe Poston, co-chair	Staff	June 30, 2024
Courtney Rotchford	Staff	June 30, 2024
Jake Kranstreuber	Staff	June 30, 2024
Olha Kholod	Postdoctoral Scholar	June 30, 2024
Galini Poimenidou	Graduate or Professional student	June 30, 2024