

PROVOST'S ADVISORY COUNCIL FOR ARTS ADVANCEMENT & INTEGRATION AT DARTMOUTH (CAAI)

Last Updated: February 4, 2023

Charge:

To promote collaboration, integration and advancement of the arts at Dartmouth with the goal of supporting and broadening arts experiences within the Arts District and across our campus community.

Specific Objectives:

- Advancing integration and collaboration of artistic disciplines and scholarship within the district
- Raising visibility of the arts at Dartmouth as central to our campus experience
- Supporting and provoking cross-campus collaborations and deepening of curricular integration of the arts and related research with disciplines outside of the arts
- Career development, networking and student capacity building in arts entrepreneurship and management
- Advancement and development of the Arts District and related logistics and infrastructure

Membership:

Name	Role
Mary Lou Aleskie	Executive Director of the Hopkins Center for the Arts
Barbara Will	Vice Provost for Academic Initiatives
Sam Levey	Associate Dean of Arts and Humanities
John Stomberg	Director of the Hood Museum
Sam Levey (interim)	Chair of the Department of Film and Media Studies or representative
Ted Levin	Chair of the Department of Music or representative
Tricia Treacy	Chair of the Department of Studio Art or representative
Dan Kotlowitz	Chair of the Department of Theater or representative
Tommy O'Malley	Director of Creative Writing or representative

Ex-officio:

Bob Lasher	Senior Vice President for Advancement
Shontay Delaloe	Senior Vice President; Senior Diversity Officer
Josh Keniston	Vice President of Campus Services
Justin Anderson	Vice President for Communications
Mitch Davis	Vice President of Information, Technology & Consulting; Chief Information Officer
Sue Mehrer	Dean of Libraries